

Pathways to quality personnel selection

Embedding psychometrics into your organisation

Request evaluation of your departments

Phone 02 9230 0999 or email nicolemilatos@mckenziecarrick.com.au to request an evaluation of your departmental/job categories across your organisation

Evaluation of your position descriptions and identification of abilities and characteristics

By meeting with departmental heads, we will analyse the abilities and characteristics required for each of their respective job descriptions

Trial test batteries

We will compose a unique test battery for each job description to capture the specific requirements for the role using our expertise in accordance with your preferences

Trial sample reports

For each job category, sample reports are constructed to arrive at your preferred format, content and length

Appoint job category levels

To assist departmental heads in arranging previously confirmed test batteries for their respective staff levels

Provide referrer codes to each department

Issue departments with; referrer codes for ease & consistency in arranging a booking
